GREEN LIGHT TO BEGIN READING

Above, children at the the L.A. Family Housing facility in North Hollywood cut the ribbon during a ceremony Monday opening the newly refurbished library. They are joined by parents and teachers, along with executives of GreenLight Financial Services, which donated the money for the project that provided new furniture, books, paint, flooring and bookshelves. At right, Georgina Garcia-Figueroa, center, site supervisor of the L.A. Family Housing facility in North Hollywood, reads to children attending the ceremony.
